1 A Song of Praise.

(This is a real good Anniversary song. Sing it.)

Tune—Gird on the armor.

For Thy goodness work we see,
Thanks, God, we bring to Thee.
For Thy great Salvation Army;
It has brought forth joy and peace.
Thank to Thee shall never cease.
For raising Thy Salvation Army.

chorus.

Shout "Hallelujah! Glory to God!"
For all the victory He has bestowed;
With new faith we'll onward go,
Driving back our every foe.

chorus.

For God and the Salvation Army,
We were wretched sinners all,
Tightly bound in Satan's thrall.

When freed by the Salvation Army,
But it told us of the light,
And it led us into light.

Thank God for the Salvation Army!
When we came with all our sin,
Thou didst freely take us in.

As told by the Salvation Army,
And that others, too, may know
Thou canst save from sin and woe.

We fight in the Salvation Army,
We are thankful for the way
Thou hast led us every day.

We fight in the Salvation Army;
And until Thy summons come,
We will march behind the drums
And sing of Thy Salvation Army.

Then upon the plains of light,
We shall walk with Thee in white,
Will all the great Salvation Army.

And we'll thank Thee then all the way,
Us, through Thy great Salvation Army.
STAFF-CAPT. MARMALADE, ENG.

2 An Invitation.

Tune—Gird on the armor.

O you hear your Saviour pleading,
Gently knocking at your heart,
If you'll leave your sin and sorrow,
Of His love He will impart.

chorus.

He is willing, He is waiting,
Now to save and set you free;
Claim the promise that is written,
"Whosoever shall come into me."

Long He mercy you've rejected,
And sin with fasts and tears,
But His will to redeem you,
If His voice you will obey.

Will you give yourself to Jesus,
And be saved and happy here,
You'll find that He will save you,
You will want the Saviour near.

There is pardon for the sinner,
Who and wretched through the night,
Full salvation, grace abundant,
Is not added unto this.

3 Up to Standard.

BY RED, BEAR RIVER, N.E.

Tune—My very heart.

Oh! I felt my sin and folly once for all,
When I heard that Jesus died for me;
And I now have constant pleasure here,
For I'm cleansed and saved and fully free.

chorus.

In my joyful heart the Saviour now abides,
Every day, every day.
In my mind there is no shade of doubt or fear,
For my life with mine and God is right.

Since I have this full and free salvation found,
All my heart is filled with joy and light.
I'm trusting fully in the Overlaid,
And my garments they are spotless white;

I am living in the Saviour's love and life,
Walking in the "hallelujah light."

My heart is filled with joy and light,
I'm trusting fully in the Overlaid,
And my garments they are spotless white;

I am living in the Saviour's love and life,
Walking in the "hallelujah light."

4 Knee-Drill Song.

AN OLD FAVORITE.

Tune—Gird on the armor.

They are there are soldiers in some
Of our corps
That you never see at knee-drill and march;
Hence, in their beds, no cry and warm;
From the devil need have no alarm;
For they sleep, and they sleep or rest.

They turn themselves over and over again,
"I'm tired, and G, it's so early to rise."
So again they roll over and close their eyes.

As the clock strikes six they're aroused from their dreams,
And when they get to their feet,
They do just the same as the march comes in.

And just reach the hall as the march comes in,
Then, over, and over, and over they move,
Their favorite march, "I'm the child of a King."

And "I'm not my own," you will hear them say,
They forget the time they go back to day.

It's the Force and Easy that like the best,
So they get their dinner and have a rest;
And they're on the march, but they never sleep.

"I would nearly kill them to do such a thing,"
In the dream meeting again they say:
"I'm not my own," "I'm the child of a King."

"My heart and time are the Lord's,"
They say,
But don't mention the time they got up.

At night of course they are full of love,
And "go in" as they would never tire;
The "pious of souls" they say, lie on the floor.

But you'll see them go home, when the prayer meeting starts,
Their hearts, and wonder, and take as to sleep.

"Wherever don't people get saved," they say,
"Gently the officers can't be right,
Last night would have been somebody saved last night."

Now, if there's one thing that I like to do,
It's a man whose profession and life agree;
So let it be everywhere known of you,
That you're always to God and your friend.

Then work away, comrades, your spirit and soul,
Till you win,
Till the encouragement you again and again.

With plenty of knee-drill you're sure to win,
So, if you've not started, next Sunday begin.

Come up to the help of the Lord—against the mighty during Self-Denial Week. Great things will be done. Pray much about it.

5 Welcome, Commissioner!

Tune—Gird on the armor.

There—March on, my bringing the jubilee
To the soldiers of fair Canada, extend a hearty hand,
To our new Commissioner, and by him we will stand.

Placed to do our best, lead us to drive sin
From our hearts, and from our lives,
We welcome Commissioner Adams.

Welcome, welcome, our God-appointed man,
We will, we will, around him take our stand,
From Colombia to Newfoundland, together hand in hand.

We welcome him as "man of God,"
And therefore do not doubt,
But that his heart, his heart, his heart, will be
Held by his heart, his heart, his heart.

So one and all we praise the Lord, and all together shout,
"Welcome Commissioner Adams!"

With loyalty and Army pluck we rally to his aid,
Though all his life's labors may crop up our progress to delay,
Yet on in desperate earnestness, and aggressive march we go.

To assist Commissioner Adams,
With loyalty and Army pluck we rally to his aid,
Though all his life's labors may crop up our progress to delay.

Yet on in desperate earnestness, and aggressive march we go,
To assist Commissioner Adams,
With loyalty and Army pluck we rally to his aid.

Though all his life's labors may crop up our progress to delay,

6 Fact Recollections.

There—March on, my bringing the jubilee
To the soldiers of fair Canada, extend a hearty hand,
To our new Commissioner, and by him we will stand.

Placed to do our best, lead us to drive sin
From our hearts, and from our lives,
We welcome Commissioner Adams.

Welcome, welcome, our God-appointed man,
We will, we will, around him take our stand,
From Colombia to Newfoundland, together hand in hand.

We welcome him as "man of God,"
And therefore do not doubt,
But that his heart, his heart, his heart, will be
Held by his heart, his heart, his heart.

So one and all we praise the Lord, and all together shout,
"Welcome Commissioner Adams!"
